I'm currently studying Theatre & Performance at the University of Bristol.

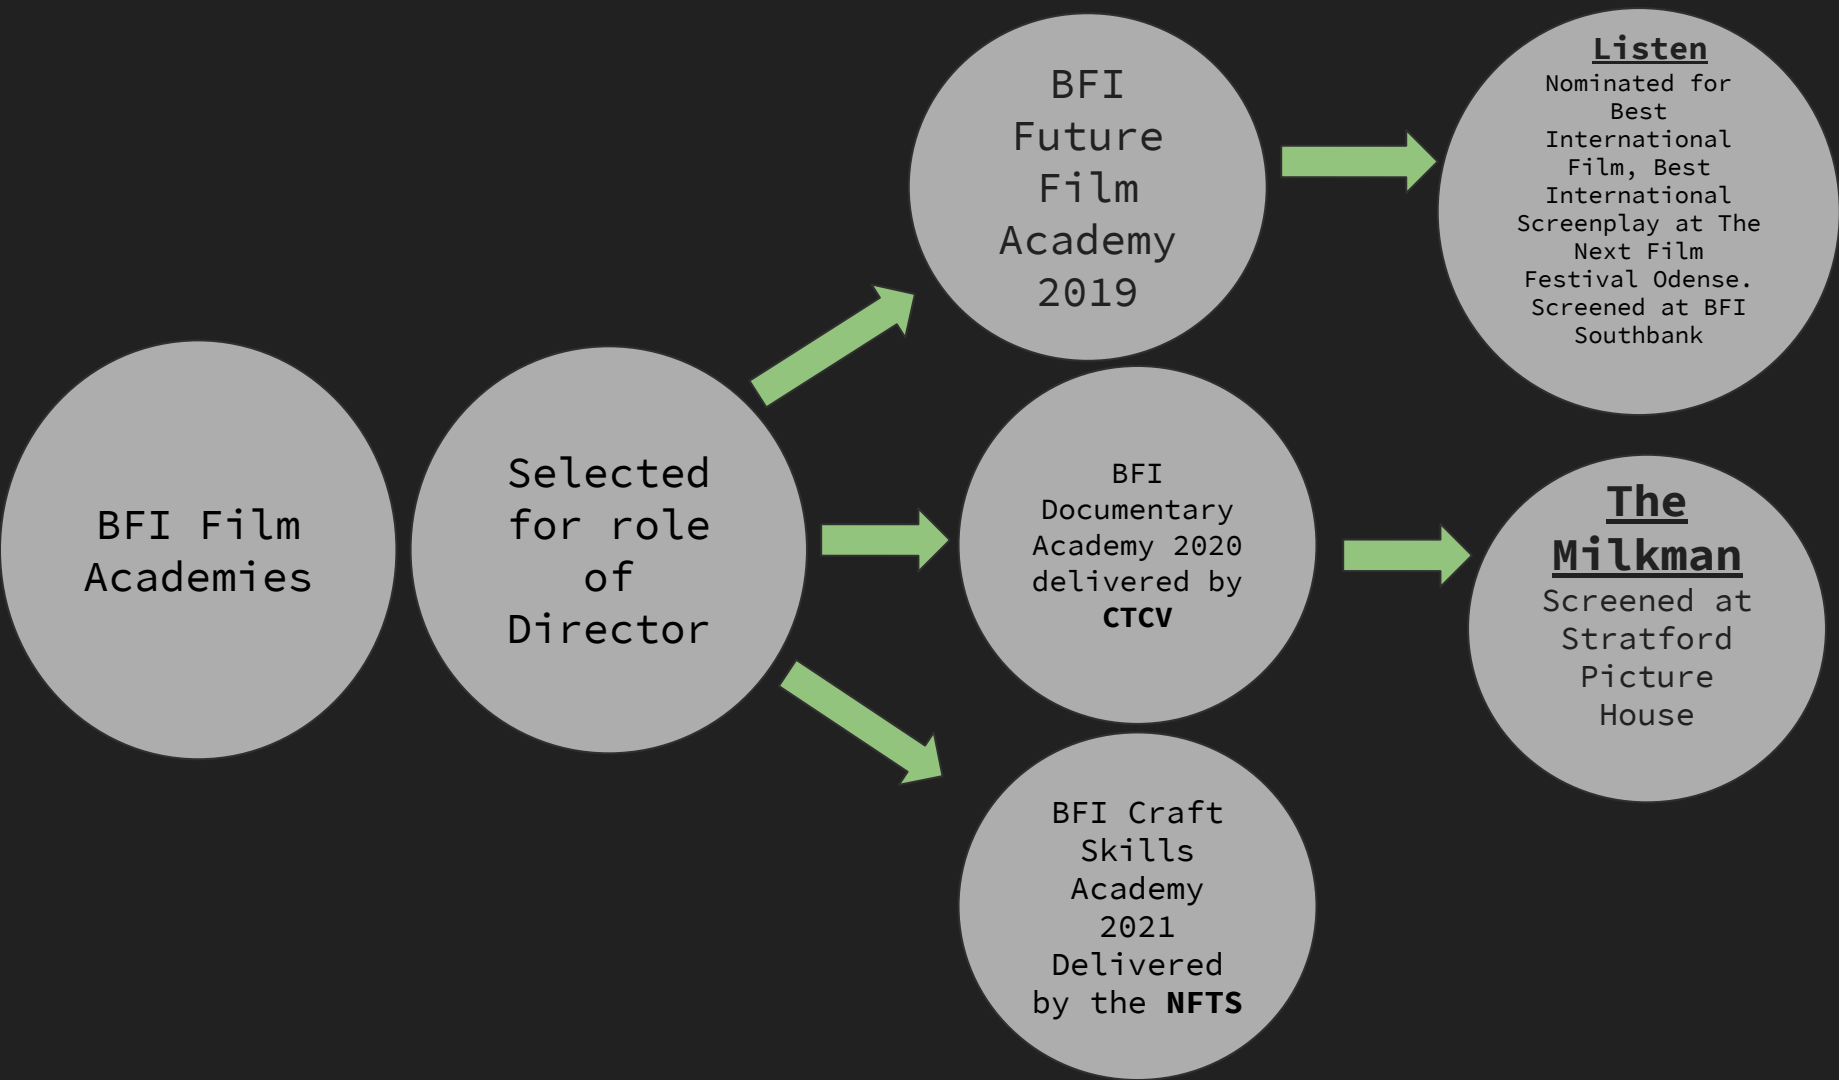

My main interests are writing and directing.

In the past two years, I was selected as Director for three BFI Film Academies with my films screened at BFI Southbank and Stratford Picturehouse. My film 'Listen' has been nominated for Best International Film, Best International Screenplay at Next Film Festival, Odense.

I am an alumnus of New Blood Shifters with D&AD in the role of Creative and Copywriter.

I write poems, screenplays and stage plays.

I am always looking to develop my creative skills in any way and area I can.
